About the Summit

Description

The program will bring nurse colleagues together to discuss the impact that minority nurses will have in healthcare in the 21st Century. Nationally recognized speakers will address the need to have minority nurse leaders as role models and the impact they will have on the "Future of Nursing".

Objectives.

At the conclusion of the summit, the participants will be able to:

- 1) Identify strategies that minority nurses can utilize to make a difference in healthcare.
- 2) Discuss the minority nurse's role in shaping the Future of Nursing Leadership
- 3) Describe the disparities between minority nurses and the population they serve and the impact on the delivery of healthcare.
- 4) Explore strategies to help recruit more minorities into the nursing profession.
